May 22—Tuesday

Leave Audubon and arrive at your Boston area hotel where you will stay for two nights. After dinner, enjoy a performance by the famous Boston Pops at Boston's historic Symphony Hall with second balcony seating. Afterwards, return to your hotel.

May 23—Wednesday

Enjoy breakfast before departing for Boston to meet your guide for a Boston city tour. Discover this capitol city including the USS Constitution, the oldest warship afloat in the US Navy, Beacon Hill, the Fleet Center, Boston Common, Bunker Hill, Boston Public Garden, State House and more. Cruise on the Spirit of Boston while enjoying lunch and entertainment with views of the Boston Harbor islands, historic forts, the tea party site and more. Then it's time for a photo op on the Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy Greenway, Boston's newest beautiful rose arched walkway overlooking historic Boston Harbor. Continue touring after the cruise and enjoy dinner at the Faneuil Hall/Quincy Market (on your own) with time to explore this historic center filled with shops, eateries and carts of handcrafted gifts.

May 24—Thursday

After breakfast, enjoy flowers and fragrance, fruits and textures with dynamic landscapes at the country's oldest public arboretum, Arnold Arboretum, owned and operated by Harvard University. Lunch is on your own. After, board the bus to return home to Audubon.
